SAVE THE DATE for EGGS-IBITION 3

The Artists Enclave of Denton County invites the public to experience a Silent Auction like no other at EGGS-ibition 3: This Time It's VIPersonal, Friday, March 23, 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Agua Dulce Mexican Kitchen, 115 East Elm Street, Denton, Texas 76201. EGGS-ibition 3 showcases one-of-a-kind eggs handcrafted by over thirty-five local community leaders, artists and businesses. All auction proceeds benefit Denton High School Family Assistance Foundation, dentonhighcares.com/.

The mission of the Denton High School Family Assistance Foundation is to provide financial and other assistance to members of the DHS family (defined as alumni as well as current and former faculty and staff) in times of severe medical or other crises. Formed in August, 2014, the Foundation's fifteen-member board of directors include the current Denton High School principal and DHS alumni. The Foundation has awarded over $100,000 in grants since its formation.

Artists Enclave of Denton County promotes special events supporting the important work of fellow nonprofit organizations like Denton High Cares. The Artists Enclave Board, comprised of Susan Carol Davis, Randall M. Good, Kimberley Dietrich and Pat Reinke, advocate artists and community leaders positively impacting where they live and work - not only with their art but also, with their passion for helping philanthropic organizations fulfill their mission in the ever growing and diversified Denton County.
